PLEASANT ROUND OF CALLS.

Near Future-The Gay Season at the Capital-Mr. Eugene Arnold Married-Personal

Notes of General Interest.

MR. EUGENE F. ARNOLD'S BRIDE.

Society went calling as vigorously yesterday make the complete rounds. A great many began the circuit by leaving at the door of the residence of Secretary Blaine their annual bristol board contributions. This duty accomplished, it became a pleasant thing to peep inside the parlors of the rest of the cabinet min-isters, where light and warmth and good cheer abounded. Miss Blaine and Mrs. Damrosch were out calling themselves and had to answer many inquiries for their father, the report of whose illness had then become widely circuated. Their presence naturally quieted all fears as to his condition. At the vice presidential mansion both Mr. and Mrs. Morton were receiving their callers, Mrs. Morton remaining in her accustomed place upon such occasions—at the door of the middle parlor, while the Vice President had the added pleasure of moving around among those familiar to him. If it were possible to select a time when Mrs. Morton looked more gracious and handsomer than usual her appearance vosterday would seem to indicate that period. Her gown was well chosen—a soft mauve brocade, made with a stylish jacket bodice and a high collar, around which gleamed a band of diamond stars. Out in the dining room, where the table was decorated with La Mrs. Morton remaining in her accustomperiod. Her gown was well chosen—a soft mauve brocade, made with a stylish jacket bodice and a high collar, around which gleamed a band of diamond stars. Out in the dining room, where the table was decorated with La France roses, Miss Codman of Boston and Miss Morgan of New York sat at one end and served chocolate, while at the other Miss McMillan and Miss Higgins did the honors behind a glittering array of tea things. Miss Hunt assisted pleasantly in every direction.

Mrs. Morton does not receive again until Wednesday, January 20. Mrs. Foster was not able to receive yesterday afternoon, but the hospitality of her house was well looked after by her daughter, Miss TOR SALE—ALARGE FINE BAY HORSE, AGE Foster, who looked her prettiest in a gown of light green brocade. She had assisting her light green brocade. She had assisting her Mrs. Hart of Mansfield, Ohio, and Miss Woods, who is Miss Foster's guest.

Mrs. Miller's house was as bright and cheerful as it always is and those who came managed to linger beyond the limits of the ordinary fashion-able call. Mrs. Miller wore a handsome black satin Knox sat at the table, where they were always surrounded by chatting friends.

Mrs. Wanamaker received from 3 to 5, and luring those hours was always surrounded. Her house was particularly attractive, as there were roses well worth admiring in the different rooms, and the refreshment table in the dining lace and jet. Mrs. Hadeliffe of Detroit, a charming lady, who visited Mrs. Wanamaker last winter, assisted. Miss Wanamaker was in the second parlor and the picture gallery had Miss Hodge, Miss Breckinridge, Miss Constance Lodge, Miss Gardner of New York and Miss Morgan to entertain the young folks, who generally displayed a willingness to make this call one of the longest in the round.

Mrs. Noble received after 4 o'clock and had on a becoming gown of dark green silk with rich jetted trimmings. The Misses Halsted and their guest, Miss Foster of Chicago, Miss Shields and Miss Waithall assisted. All the young ladies took turns in offering cups of tea and the other refreshments to callers. Secre-tary Noble was also at home.

Mrs. Rusk had a very pleasant reception and Mrs. Rusk had a very pleasant reception and had, as usual, an agreeable company of well-known young ladies to assist her. She wore a garnet velvet gown combined with pearl silk. Miss Rusk had on a most becoming toilet in dark red crepe. Mrs. Stanley Prown and her friend, Miss Whitney of Cleveland, assisted. At the tea table Miss Batcheller and Miss Scidmore sat vis-a-vis, while Miss Riddle presided aver a bowl of punch.

Mrs. Wilmerding had a charming reception. She was looking especially we'll in a gown of black crepe, which was the more effective since all the rest of her assistants were in light toilets. Mrs. Catlin of Brooklyn, her aunt, who is visiting her, Mrs. Ferguson and the Misses Del Monte assisted. At the tea table Miss Helen Potter did the honors.

Senator and Mrs. Dolph gave a dinner party last night in honor of President and Mrs. Harlast night in honor of President and Mrs. Harrison, at which the other guests were Secretary and Mrs. Noble, Senator and Mrs. Stanford, Justice and Mrs. Field, Justice and Mrs. Harrlan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Villard of New York, Mrs. C. A. Doiph of Portland, Ore., Mrs. John D. Green, who is now Mrs. Doiph's guest, and Mr. and Mrs. Nixon. All the decorations of the rooms and table were in pink. A scart of point lace ran along the center of the cloth over pink satin, and the center piece was of Catherine Mermet roses and ferns. There were bunches of the same roses at the ladies' places. bunches of the same roses at the ladies' places. Some of the things overheard at the cabinet receptions yesterday are embodied in the fol-lowing list of good intentions, some of which have reached the point of certainty, since the cards are out: The Chinese minister and Madame Tsui are going to give a ball on the 14th instant to carry out their purpose of last spring, when their plans were frustrated by a period of court

Mrs. Audenreid will give a dinner on the coming Friday in honor of Mr. Patenotre, the French minister. Mrs. Chas. Chester Bassett will give a luncheon on the 13th in honor of Mrs. McCreary of Kentucky. Mrs. Henry F. Blount will give a tea on the 12th, Mrs. Dixon a tea on the same date and Mr. and Mrs. Edmunds a dinner on the 14th.

Mrs. J. W. Pilling, No. 1301 Massachusetts avenue, will not receive until Friday, January Mrs. Perry S. Heath and her sister, Miss Conway, have returned from their visit to Louis-ville, and will hereafter be at home to their friends at No. 1223 15th street northwest every The marriage of Miss Francis Burnham

The marriage of Miss Francis Burnham Woods, the only daughter of Mrs. Cecelia I. Woods and the late Major General Chas. R. Woods and niece of the late Justice Wm. B. Woods, to Mr. Eugene F. Arnold of Washington took place this morning at St. Francis de Sales Church in Newark, Ohio, in the presence of a large number of distinguished friends and relatives, and was a most brilliant social event.

The bride, preceded by the bridal procession, was escorted to the high altar by her uncle, Dr. A. T. Speer. They were met at the altar railing by the groom and his best man, Mr. Edward H. Santord of Chicago. The ceremony was performed by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Watterson of Columbus, assisted by Rev. Father William F. Hayes, pastor, who recently received Miss Woods into the Catholic Church. Tho young bride is a beautiful brunette, and comes of an old and very distinguished family, as well on the side of her mother as that of her father. Bhe was attired in a stylish gown of light broadcloth, richly trimmed with Alaskan sable, and with "Louis XIV" coat, the skirt of gown being demi-train. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and her only ornament was a magnificent diamond pin and pendant, in "Sunburst" shape, a gift of the groom. The bridesmaids were Miss Jessie Robbins and Miss Kate Wilson, and the maid of honor was little Miss Louise Speer, a daughter of Dr. Speer. The ushers were Messrs Joseph Sprague, Robert Davidson, Harry Hoover and Thaddeus Montgomery. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast and reception followed at the resivideon, Harry Hoover and Thaddeus Montgomery. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast and reception followed at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Speer, at the close of which the young married couple departed for the cast. They will reside in Washington. Mr.

In the Criminal Court, Justice Bradley, this morning a colored boy, James Westen, indicated with George Walker for largeny from the person-matching the pocket book of Miss Lillie L. Wilson on September 28—was found guilty.

Good Crops Estimated. The estimates by states and territories of area product and value of the principal cereals of the United States for 1891, made by the statistician of the Department of Agriculture, show that the crops of corn, wheat and oats, including all but 2 or 3 per cent of the cereal including all but 2 or 3 per cent of the cereal aggregate, are reported. The total for corn has only been exceeded once. The wheat product is the largest ever grown in any country, and yield per acre in the United States is the largest ever reported by the Department of Agriculture. The total for oats was slightly exceeded in 1889. The aggregates are as follows: Corn—Area, 76,204,515 acres: product, 2,060,154,000 bushels; value, $836,439,228. owners look after their welfare personally. Now, will you suggest:

1. To ask the merchants to see their stable keepers for themselves and assure themselves of the condition in which the horses come in.

2. Ask ladies to report to those they deal with any oppression practiced on their animals; also to have their order lists ready, to prevent over-driving from loss of time, and to have parcels promptly taken in.

3. Urge the owners of dray horses to see for themselves the condition of their beasts at night, beg them to withhold the use of the dreadful leather thongs from the brutal among the drivers.

John Horigan's Funeral.

The funeral of the late John Horigan, who was shot and killed by Frank W. Heygster, the saloon keeper, as heretofore published in Tux Sran, took place this morning from the residence of his stopmother on 2d street northeast. From the house the body was taken to St. Aloysius' Church, where requiem mass was said, and the interment was made in Mt. Olivet cometery.

The grip is relaxing its grasp upon Brook-"As I said at the outset, there should be no question about this matter. For certain reasons Mr. Carson has assumed the role of boiter, and, with his followers who met yesterday morning in what The Syra very properly dubbed as 'Carson's Convention,' will be so classified. There is no tangle about the matter.

The grip is relaxing its grasp upon Brookland people, and so far no fatalities from this cause have cecurred. Mrs. Jas. Norton is seriously ill from a relapse of the influenza, but the families of Mr. Noyes, Mr. Middlekauf, Mrs. Jullien and Prof. Barrows, who were all seriously affected, are able to be about.
